MARION COLLEGE
THE HATCHET
1966

THE COLLEGE

"This is the place. Stand still, my stead,
Let me review the scene,
And summon from the shadowy Past
The forms that once have been."

FOREWORD

One might ask why the Hatchet staff spends time and money every year on the production of a yearbook. It is because those of us who reach this final threshold of our lives at Marion College, wish to leave behind us a record of our activities, a part of ourselves. We hope that this record in paper and ink will help you to recollect that living record which remains in your hearts and minds. In the coming years, if our book proves to be well written, and the "characters" still seem fresh and real, we will have indeed been successful.

We now invite you to walk with us, in memory, down a road upon which we never again shall tread.

DEDICATION

Your untiring efforts and ceaseless devotion to your work have won you the respect and admiration of all those who know you. Your constant strivings and sense of fairness have been invaluable to us. We feel indebted to you for your faithful contributions to your students and to the college in general.

Mostly because we think very highly of her, the 1966 HATCHET is dedicated to Mrs. Mary Chryst Anderson.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

DR. JOHN H. FRAY

Identity with the Faculty and students of Marion College for the past seventeen years has strengthened the conviction that there is a purpose in the design of this academic community. In some humble way an honest effort has been made to keep Christ central in our thinking and in our plans, knowing that "only he who keeps his eye on the far horizon will find the right goal".

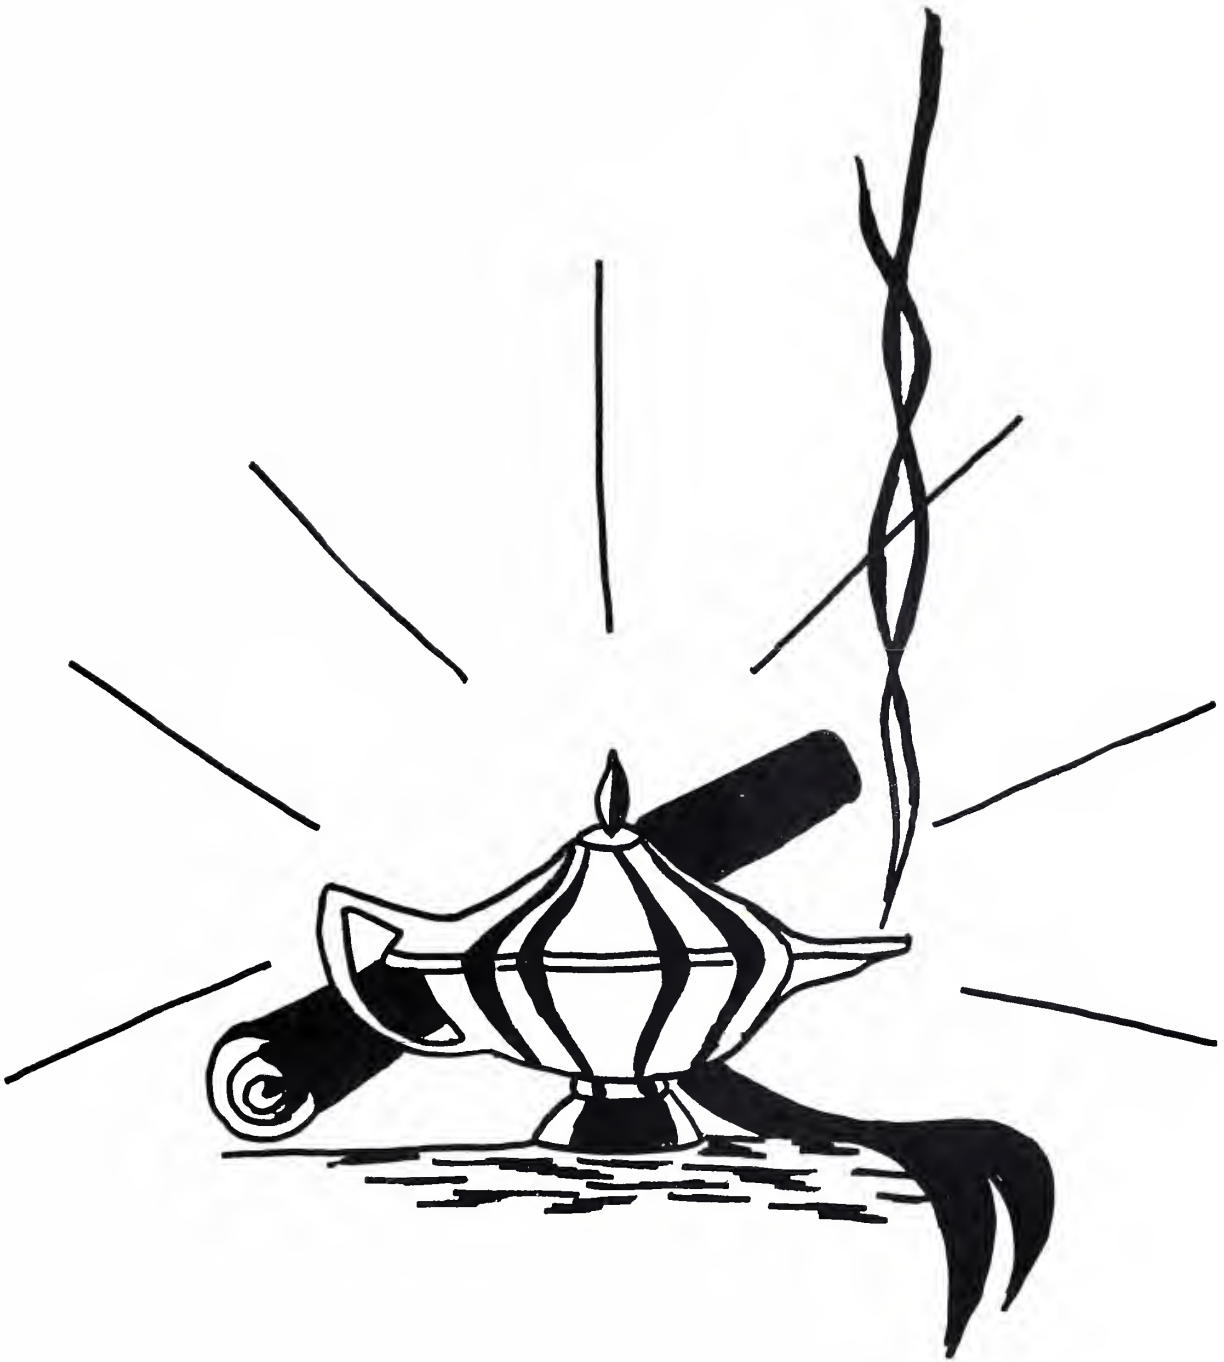

MARGARET HUMPHREY
Dean of Women

From the Dean

As you come to the close of the 1965-1966 session you are challenged with the prospects of a bright future for Marion College. With open minds may you press forward to a higher degree of efficiency in academic endeavors and face the future with optimistic hope. The higher you set your goals the greater will be your joy in working to achieve them.

MESSAGE FROM THE EDITOR:

We hope that this book will enable you to think back pleasantly over this past year at Marion College. This is a book which could not have been written without the many contributions of all its characters, the students of Marion College.

This yearbook is no longer ours alone, but now belongs also to you. It is our sincere hope that you will enjoy the 1966 HATCHET.

The Honor Court

Left to right: N. UTZ, J. BREUER, B. PENNINGTON.

"To thine own self be true, and it must follow as the night the day, thou canst not then be false to any man." Shakespeare has here captured the essence of the honor code.

The Honor Court seeks to uphold the Marion College ideal and is concerned basically with the academic phase of student life. It is composed of three members elected by the student body.

The Honor Court feels that honor and self-respect are indispensable qualifications for a successful person. It is for this reason that the Honor Court strives to uphold the honor code of Marion College.

The standards symbolized by the Greek letters $\Phi\Theta\Kappa$ are wisdom, aspiration, and purity. "The purpose of the society is to promote scholarship, to develop character and to cultivate fellowship among the students of both sexes of the junior colleges of the United States."

The society symbolizes an intellectual accomplishment. To encourage the scholarly atmosphere of the college and to aid in any possible way the growth of the academic standards is the students' purpose. Some of the activities during the year are tapping, initiation, and a tea honoring new members.

Seated: B. STEVENSON, P. CONKLIN, S. BROOKS, N. JOHNSON, J. MENUFZ. Standing: M. MILLFR, A. MEIFRDIERKS, B. BLFVINS, P. BARNES, M. AUGHBAUGH, C. ERICKSON, M. SLOCUM, S. GUY.

The Student Council

Left to right: P. LENHART, B. PENNINGTON, G. MAYO.

The Student Government Association, through its Student Council and Honor Court, works in close co-operation with the Administration in maintaining standards of honesty, courtesy, and co-operation among the students. It reserves the right to discipline or refer to the college administration any student whose conduct or spirit is out of harmony with the standards set by the Association and the college administration, or whose influence is felt to be harmful to the best interests of the college community.

All students at Marion College are members of the Student Government Association and share its obligations as well as its privileges. Your student government earnestly solicits your co-operation in upholding the Marion Ideal.

The Student Council holds regularly scheduled weekly meetings and such other emergency meetings as are necessary to consider violations of the Honor Code.

The Student Council works as a body, not as individuals, in considering appeals and in granting special permissions.

The Missionary Society, one of the oldest organizations at Marion College, is an interdenominational group which "gives where service is needed." Society members are the "missionaries" who witness through their daily life at college.

As one of the projects this year, a Thanksgiving basket of food was given to a needy Marion family.

Through monthly programs, members have learned more constructive ways to serve humanity here and around the world.

The Marion Ideal

MISS CAROL HELSEL

To care for what is, rather than for what seems . . .
To be loyal to the traditions of the past, yet open to the discoveries of the present and hopes of the future . . .
To find freedom in knowledge of the truth, beauty in the common sphere of daily living, joy in love and friendship, strength in constructive service, . . .
To play happily and work honestly . . .
To believe in God and God's children . . .
To serve where service is most needed . . .
This is the ideal of Marion College.

Dependable!

Many of our craftsmen have been with us twenty, thirty, forty years—quite a few even more. Along with these are enough youthful workers to give us a modern outlook. We are continually striving to improve our methods and equipment.

Our desire is to serve your every need, whether it is 250 envelopes, 25,000 magazines, or one million folders.

For more than eighty years those desiring the best in lithography, printing and engraving have turned to Stone. We are particularly proud that among these many long-time customers are the finest schools, colleges and businesses in your territory. May we also serve you?
